T12. As you may know, last week Governor Sandoval signed four education bills into law. Part of the new education legislation requires school districts to create a program of teacher performance pay for the recruitment and retention of teachers and administrators. Starting in 2013, at least 50 percent of a teacher or administrators' evaluation will be based upon student achievement. Teachers that receive an unsatisfactory rating for two consecutive years will be deemed a probationary teacher, and will be easier to fire. Do you favor or oppose this new legislation?
